Subject- letter to break lease due to safety concern

[Landlord's Name]

[City, State, Zip Code]

Dear [Landlord's name],

I am the tenant living in [Apartment number and number] at [Address]. I am writing to you to inform you that I am obligated to terminate my lease, effective [Date 30 days from this letter], due to safety concerns. The reason for this is that the apartment complex has been riddled with crime, and I no longer feel safe living here. There have been [Number] reports of break-ins, robberies, and assaults in just the past month, and I fear that it is only a matter of time before something happens to me or my property. The complex has failed to take adequate security measures to protect its tenants, and I refuse to continue living in an environment where I do not feel safe.

I hope you will understand my decision and release me from my lease. Thank you for your time.

Sincerely,

Signature
